

Hilo Will Celebrate With Many Features; Regatta Stellar Card

Large Number of Honolulu People Leave for Crescent City This Afternoon on Mauna Kea—Healanis, Myrtles and Hilo Will Meet in Two Races in the Morning—Pan-Pacific Track Team to Compete—Baseball and Other Athletics to Be Staged

Everything is set for the big regatta at Hilo tomorrow, and the Crescent City is expected to stage one of the best programs in its history. This year's regatta events will surpass anything ever staged before in Hilo and both races promise to be exceptionally close throughout.

A large crowd leaves Honolulu this evening on the Mauna Kea, and another record crowd went over last Saturday. As yet the racing devotees have been hesitant about picking a winner in the Class A race, and the Healanis members pick the Healanis and the Myrtles pick the red crew. Hilo must be figured on this year, and when the boats line up for the start there is not expected to be any first choice.

Hilo Crew Strong
Mel Nicolai and his crew at Hilo have been working hard, and this year promises to be a real year for Hilo. The Honolulu crews should not be favorites, as Hilo has a worthy squad of oarsmen ready to uphold the honors of the Crescent City.

One of the features of the day will be the impromptu swimming race which will be staged between the three boat clubs, provided that the Hilo contingent can muster the necessary swimmers. The race will be a 15 man event, each man swimming 50 yards. Duke Kahamamoku and "Stubby" Kruger will compete in this event.

Track Team Leaves
The track events and baseball are sure to be features. John Watt and Joe Stickney have organized a Pan-Pacific track team, and with four or five Honolulu boys competing the team should carry off the honors, although the 25th Infantry boys are still on Hawaii.

The leading team of Hilo will meet the 25th Infantry baseball team in the feature game of the day. This battle will be staged in the afternoon, following the track meet. The aquatic events will be held in the morning.

Norton Boosts Affairs
The excursion to Hilo this year is easily a record, and L. W. de Vries Norton today. "Saturday's boat went out loaded to the limit, and the special steamer which leaves at 5 o'clock this afternoon will be pretty nearly as full. The splendid program awaiting the visitors is the biggest thing Hilo has ever attempted and, believe me, Hilo knows how to do the thing properly. Intense interest is being taken in the inter-island championship rowing contest, and with Duke Kahamamoku and all the cream of the Honolulu oarsmen in action, it is expected that the Hilo crews will have the toughest fight of their lives.

"Personally, though, I imagine that the cup will stay in the Crescent City this time, as the crews over there are in better shape than last year, when they lost by a very narrow margin. It will be an exciting contest, anyway, and the best crew will undoubtedly win. The roadstead is so open that it favors either side equally and there is really no advantage in a knowledge of local waters, as many might imagine.

Volcano Party
"Everything is in fine shape right through and everyone will have a splendid time. I have a very large party for the volcano on Thursday, though I think a large number will make the trip over the scenic railway to Paualo in the morning. Anyhow, they can do this and yet be at the volcano in stacks of time for the evening display there and, as the lake is rising very rapidly, this will be perhaps the best time of all the festivities. Let me urge all who have not yet booked for the boat tonight, to do so at once."

STAGE SET FOR CELEBRATION AT CRESCENT CITY

Intense interest is being shown in the Fourth of July events at Hilo and the steamer Mauna Kea, which leaves for the Big Island this afternoon, will take a big crowd of Honoluluans to the Crescent City.

The track events promise to be one of the stellar features of the celebration, and the local athletes and members of the relay team have an excellent opportunity to romp away with some of the first prizes, although they will have to compete with some of the 25th Infantry track stars now on duty in Hilo.

Members of the Myrtles and Healanis crews went to Hilo last Saturday for some extra training and to familiarize themselves with the course. Both crews are in excellent form and Honolulu fans anticipate they will capture both first and second places. The swimming events also promise to be features of the occasion.

Mauna Kea Due Early
The Mauna Kea will arrive in Hilo in ample time to allow the passengers to see the parade before going to the regatta, and the committee in charge

Honolulu Picked This Squad to Down Kauai--Will They?

Members of the All-Student baseball team snapped before they sailed for Kauai last evening. This squad was selected by the baseball fund of Honolulu through the contest staged by the Star-Bulletin. The players showed that the selection was no fluke by defeating a picked team on Saturday afternoon at Moiliili Field. The members of the party from left to right, back row, are: Wid Affonso, Chun Chew, Kuriaaki, Lai Sin, Billy Miles, manager and coach, Markham, Sunn Hung, Miyahara, Kauhane, and Baldwin. Lower row: Lam Wing, Nushida, You Bun Hae, George Haneberg, Tauiyama and Iwanaga.

OWEN MERRICK WILL COVER HILO SPORTS
Owen Merrick, sporting editor of the Star-Bulletin, will leave for Hilo this evening on the Mauna Kea. Readers of the Star-Bulletin will be given full details of the athletic events which will be held in the Crescent City. Honolulu athletes will be represented in the rowing, swimming and track events, and a full account of the events will be furnished to the readers of the Star-Bulletin. George Haneberg and Sunn Hung of the Star-Bulletin staff are now on Kauai. Full details of the trip of the All-Students will be furnished by the representatives upon their return.

The celebration promises that there will not be a dull moment from the time the glimmer docks until the conclusion of the grand ball, which will wind up the festivities. On Wednesday evening there will be a display of fireworks and on Thursday morning sightseeing automobiles will leave Hilo for the interesting parts of the Big Island.

BATFEST GOES TO L COMPANY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, July 1.—In a very one-sided game Co. L beat Co. D by the score of 17 to 7 at Fort Shafter on Sunday. Co. D had an off day, lacking pep and energy, booting the ball all around the diamond.

Wilson pitched great ball for Co. L, striking out five and allowing Co. D only five scattered hits. Sweeney and Friday started with the willow, getting four hits apiece, two going for extra bases. In the fourth inning, with the bases full, Ostendorf hit one of Medina's in-shoots into left field for a home run, clearing the bases.

Medina pitched good ball, but the support his teammates gave him was very poor. Gainer, the star first sacker, had a bad day, making four slips. Garland replaced Medina in the fourth, but fared the same fate. Medina struck out six and allowed eight hits. Garland fanned three and allowed nine hits. Medina hit one of Wilson's fast ones into left for a homer in the fifth.

Doings on the Dope Circuit

F. Gomes of the Electrics is not playing in his usual form. The once peppery shortstop has fallen, not only in fielding but also with the mighty willow. In the preliminary games this youngster showed a world of goods.

J. L. Sherman of von Hamm-Young is the real find of the Commercial league. Larry plays second for the automobile boys and is the self-luminator of his team. On Sunday against the Service First, Larry secured a triple and handled all his chances without a slip.

The Hawaiian Electric ball team seems to have the losing streak these few Sundays. Last Sunday the Electric boys lost to Coombs by the score of 4 to 3, the first game the Electric team has lost since its organization. This Sunday they were again humiliated by the Schuman Carriage team by the score of 2 to 0. The Electric boys are lacking the ginger and "pep" they once possessed.

Johnny Williams wasn't needed by the All-Stars on Sunday as Crumpler was working in good shape, so Johnny essayed to stop the Hawaiian Electric every light in the business, and during the day allowed the Light men but two meagre hits, and many a run was scored off his delivery.

Williams was ably supported by his squad of Fortites, who played real good and although Hosien showed some good pitching, the Schuman squad was in the lead all the way, and Williams had the lighters eating out of his palm. This was one of the feature games of the series, and when Williams put the dimmers on the light crew, he accomplished a real feat, as this squad was a hard one to beat.

That nine cylinder machine of Frank Coombs ran over the Mutuals in the Commercial league game on Sunday, and when the game was over the telephone line was out of order. No one could get the number, but upon investigation it was found that Coombs had the number.

Not a cylinder was missing during the entire race and Luck Yee, the head cylinder, showed some great work during the day. The man who sits on the stool and tells you what he thinks you ought to pay for a broken axle was pitching great ball on Sunday, and when the time came to call taps, the Coombs hurler had the best of the bargain, and some needed repairs were made on the telephone line.

In addition to the work of the head cylinder the other cylinders worked in excellent manner, and Frank Coombs had a smile on his face which would have done justice to John McGarland. Coombs now holds first place in the Commercial league, and they will be a hard team to catch. Coombs said that Ramey, the manager of the Mutuals, was on the other end of the telephone wire singing: "I Hear You Calling Me." Coombs called him, as you may discern by looking at the box score.

NORMAN ROSS TO GO AFTER MARKS IN SWIM EVENTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Norman Ross, whose wonderful swimming in the indoor national championships has imparted such an impetus to the sport on the Pacific coast, is to be dispatched to Atlantic City in September in search of the half-mile title.

Ross is swimming just now as no man has ever done before. Those who are acquainted with the times he has been achieving in practice are aware that the three world's records he made in March are only a foretaste of what is to come.

The astute aquatic authorities of the Olympic Club are so thoroughly convinced that the big fellow is capable of further remarkable performances that they have officially decided to send him to all the outdoor national events this year, wherever they are held.

This means that in spite of the war this country is to see the most important and interesting series of swimming contests ever held in the history of the sport.

But, of course, from a local point of view the 440 to be swum at Neptune Beach, Alameda, will be the most engrossing.

Two great Easterners are to be brought here to compete in this event. They will probably be Ted Cann of New York and Perry McGilivray of the Illinois Athletic Club, although if any other swimmer looms large in the intervening period between now and then he will be chosen.

ROGAN WILL BE IN GAME; 25TH MEETS GIANTS

Wreckers and Ruger Play July 4 at Moiliili; Asahis vs. Hawaiis; Honolulu Games

Wilbur Rogan may be seen on the mound at Moiliili Field tomorrow when the 25th Infantry team meets the Fort Ruger Giants. He may and he may not. Rogan was in Honolulu yesterday, and when asked whether he would pitch, answered that he had a sore arm. Five minutes later Goliath, who had been acting as captain for the Wreckers, said that Rogan would pitch. So there you are.

In the last game played against the Wreckers, the Giants made an excellent showing, and with Kelly on the mound, the Giants should give the Wrecking Crew a hard game. Pruitt and Kelly both exhibited a world of stuff in the last game, and Kelly is the type of pitcher who ought to cause trouble for the 25th Infantry bat wielders.

Rogan Will Play
Rogan will make his first appearance on a Honolulu diamond since he left on his furlough, and he will without doubt be given a royal welcome. Hawaii's premier baseball player hit a homer in the game against the 33d Infantry on Sunday, showing that he is back in form. If he does not pitch on Sunday he will be seen in the outfield.

The game between the Wreckers and the Giants will be the real feature of the sports on July 4. Nothing else will be staged of importance, and a large crowd is expected out to welcome Rogan and be in on it in case the Wreckers should lose out.

Asahis Vs. Hawaiis
In the first game of the day the Asahis will meet the Hawaiis, this tilt beginning at 1:30. Should the Asahis win this game they will be tied for first place with the St. Louis team. Maesake, the little left-handed pitcher, will do the flinging for the Japanese. Frank Kalua has not yet made his selection for the Hawaiis.

The fact that the Nippon Jiji has made arrangements with the Oahu Service and Pacific leagues to invite all the sailors of the Asahis to the doubleheader, is certain to create a heap of interest. The Asahis will be certain to have a royal band of rovers, as about 400 of the sailors have been invited to be present.

At Athletic Park
In the games at Athletic Park the Firestone team will again make an appearance on the field, and the St. Louis, Chinese and Portuguese teams will play in a double header. Despite the fact that the Portuguese and Chinese played poor ball in the last game, the teams are expected to improve and the managers of the teams have promised two good games of baseball. The first game will begin at 1:30 and the second game will be called at 3:30.

door national swim ever awarded to this territory, is to take place in the open water off Neptune Beach or in the 100-yard tank, depending upon the decision of Frederick Kaubman, the national secretary. A wire of investigation was dispatched to him yesterday.

The regulations say "still" water, and the local swimming officials are uncertain whether this can apply to an outdoor tank.

President R. W. Dodd of the P. A. A. will have charge of the race. The full outdoor series in which Ross will compete is as follows:

100-yard swim-Hawaiian Association, Honolulu, September 12.

440-yard swim-Pacific Association (Neptune Swimming Club), Alameda, Cal., August 12.

550-yard swim-Middle Atlantic Association (Aquatic Club), Atlantic City, September 5.

One-mile swim-Southern Pacific Association (San Diego Rowing Club), San Diego, July 4.

High dive-Southern Pacific Association (Los Angeles Athletic Club), date to be announced.

Long distance-Central Association (Cincinnati Gymnasium and Athletic Club), Ohio river, date to be announced later.
